

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

Workshop on REGENERATION: Project TAAR – 2

Recognition, redesign, rehabilitation

Bilateral cooperation between local craftsmen and academia

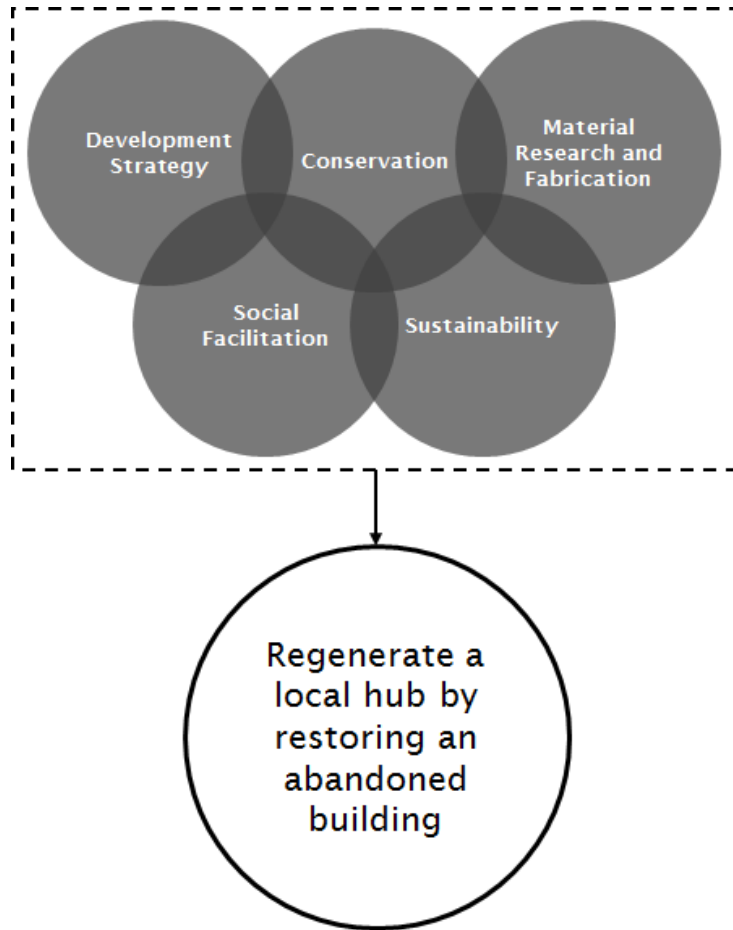

11 – 21 September 2019

Tehran + Taar, Iran

What do we do?

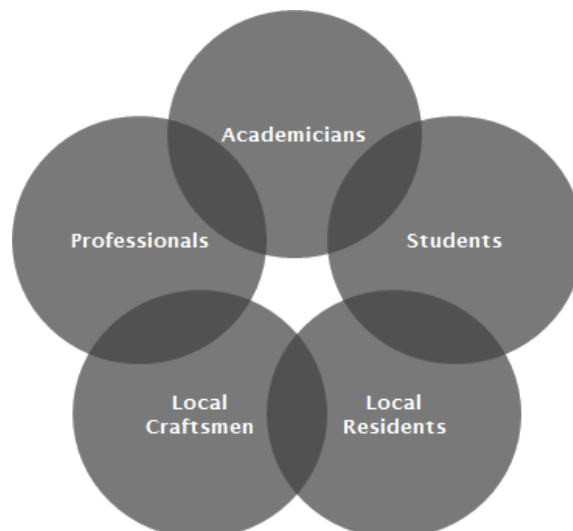

"Workshop on REGENERATION" aims to frame the problem in the contexts of conservation, sustainability, urbanization, and development. In addition, it will investigate the possible solutions through lectures, discussions, and hands-on work.

This workshop is a start point for interdisciplinary collaboration and realistic effectiveness.

How do we do?

We make links between professionals, academicians and locals to form a bond of mutual respect and perception through an architectural intervention project. The summer school consists of two parts: lectures and hands-on workshop in village.

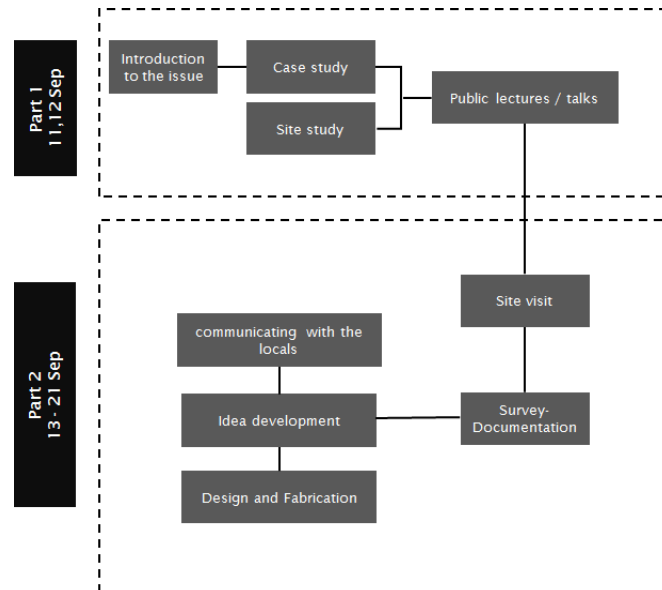

What do we learn?

We learn how to cooperate and trigger awareness among academy and local population through architecture.

We mainly focus on:

- social facilitation
- Traditional technics : adobe, rammed earth, reed and mud, stone and wood structure
